Numb. 9366.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 23, to Saturday April 27, 1754.

Lisbon, March 13.

THE King, in order to eaſe the Inhabitants of the Brazils of the Trouble and Expence of appealing to the Courts of Liſbon for the final Determination of Cauſes of different Kinds, has cauſed a Supreme Court of Juſtice to be eſtabliſhed at St. Sebaſtians, where all Diſputes in Law are for the Future to be heard and determined without Appeal. Laſt Week a Ship arrived in the Tagus from Maragnan. She ſailed from thence with the Fleet near four Months ago, and was ſeparated from it in a violent Storm of Wind off the Iſlands of the Azores. And as no News has ſince been heard of that Fleet, which is deemed very rich, having on Board to the Value of nine Millions of Cruizades, we are fearful leaſt ſome Accident has befallen it; and the rather, as the Voyage from Maragnan to this Place ſeldom exceeds ſix Weeks.

Rome, March 30. The great Number of Robberies that have lately been committed in this City, eſpecially after it was dark, occaſioned the Pope to order a Patroll to march all Night through the principal Streets, who have already apprehended a great Number of Thieves and Vagabonds, ſeveral of whom are confined to hard Labour, and Proſecutions ordered to be carried on againſt many others.

Genoa, March 30. The Government have lately ſent ſeveral ſmall Parties of Soldiers drafted from the Regiments in this Garriſon, to Corſica.

Marſeilles, April 4. Five Tranſport Ships ſailed from hence a few Days ago for Toulon, having on Board 437 Sailors, and a large Quantity of Proviſions for the Uſe of the Ships that are fitting out in that Port.

Munich, April 7. The Hereditary Prince of Modena, who has been here for ſome Time, ſet out Yeſterday Morning for the Court of the Duke his Father.

Beſancon, April 8. We have received Advice from Pontarlier, that a Fire broke out there on Thurſday laſt, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that about forty Houſes were ſoon reduced to Aſhes, notwithſtanding they had all the Aſſiſtance it was poſſible to give them; and the Convent of the Capuchins in that Town ſuffered greatly on the Occaſion.

[Price Two-Pence.]

Bruſſels, April 13. The Dutch Troops began to change their Garriſons on Monday laſt, when the Regiment of Rechteren marched from Namure for Holland; the firſt Batallion of the Griſon Regiment of Planta, from Maeſtricht for Bergen-op-Zoom; the ſecond Swiſs Regiment of Conſtant, from Sas van Ghent for Ypres; and the ſecond Batallion of the German Regiment of Waldeck, from Venlo for Namure.

Paris, April 15. They talk of forming ſeveral Camps this Summer, in the ſame Manner as they did laſt Year; and that, amongſt others, there will be one in the Franche-Comte, and another in Alſace; and 'tis even ſaid, that Count Argenſon, Secretary at War, has already prepared a Liſt of the Regiments of which each Camp is to conſiſt.

Whitehall, April 27.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Richard Cope, Clerk, Maſter of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter Weſtminſter, void by the Reſignation of Dr. Philip Yonge, late Prebendary thereof.
